Horizons

We only dream of tomorrow, 'til tomorrow's been and went
Then today's the future, and another day is spent
But we do not go alone, through this ever changing place
Our friends are always with us as we hurtle through this space

Looking back I see the happy times that passed
And the dreams and expectations that were all surpassed
Looking ahead I see all the future has in store
New friends, new loves, and ever so much more

So today I bid you all goodbye, and again hello
For it's not to an end, but to another beginning we go
And the future will be that which we've made it upon
As we move along together towards this beautiful horizon...

"Enjoy yourself. These are the good old days."

~ As you take this time to reflect upon the memories we have created in our last twelve years together, may you also remember the friendships and life lessons that have been instilled in our minds and our hearts. Bring them with you wherever the future takes you. We hope this book sparks memories that make you both laugh and cry, while also preserving these memories so you never forget where you came from. We certainly left a lasting imprint here as the Class of 2000. We wish you all both luck and happiness as you move forward into new horizons...

There was this one time when AM, PR, DS, DR, and I were going to play paint ball and we fit for other people in AM's Acura. Or the time when AM, DS, DR, PR, CL, and I were in Burlington and we skidded on the ice and almost went into pond. This one time when I was cloing at McDonald's and I was on break and as I was leaving the lot these two guys drove up over the grass. They had come from Jiffy-Lube and into our lot and looked back like someone was chasir them, it seemed like they had been into Grampa old cough medicine. It was fun.

Dr. Dudden ignored this question. He said: 'I realize you won't want to hear it, doctor but this is precisely why we have to be careful what... sort of person we allow in here. This is the sort of thing that happens when you open your doors to riff-raff!' 'Are you by any chance referring,' said Dr. Madison, 'to the NHS students?' 'I don't think I need to spell it out,' said Dr.
 Dudden."-Jonathan Coe (The House of Sleep)

"Seize the day."

I moved to Norwell in December 1998 from New Zealand. I can still remember my first day at my new school: it was very cold, so I wore a lot of clothes. I got on the bus and went to school. The first day was great, everybody loved my accent. When spring came along I joined the tennis team and I managed to make the junior varsity. Our team went all the way to the semi-finals. It was a great team effort. Then summer came and then fall and it was time to start my senior year and prepare for graduation.

"Believe in your dreams and your dreams will come true." Chairman Mao

Arriving last August from Tianjin, PRC with AFS. All my Norwell HS friends; Kirk, Liz, Catlin, Jackie, Elizabeth, and so many more. The Norwell AFS students, their host families, and our aunts and uncles....you are the best! JV Field Hockey and Friday night football. Baking pumpkin cookies like Martha Stewart. "Do you really eat mice in China?" Trips to Boston and the Vineyard. Boston Accents. Harvard Yachd and the Ten Foot Bride. Molly the dog and Oreo the beast. "Fix my shower!" Special love and thanks to my family, John, Nancy, Mei in China, and Sarah in Switzerland.

A Night To Remember '99

Both juniors and seniors gathered at Ridder Country Club on May 15, 1999 for an evening of dining and dancing. The Prom Court consisted of Andrea Donovan and Julie O'Donnell, and George Gainer and Colleen Mullen as King and Queen. Wonderful decorations, fun people, and great music made it truly a night to remember.

Kayla Halloran and Briana Rinchuiso had tremendous success in the state meet, while the rest of the team also fared well in the league meet. Head coach Chuck Martin has high hopes for his young squad next year.

The boys' team didn't have quite the success they were looking for, but recieved strong individual performances from 800 runner Brian Morris, miler Geoff Atkinson, and 2 miler Mark Mahoney.

Boys' Tennis

The tennis team had a dynamite season, advancing farther than any other team at NHS ever has. They stormed through the South Sectional tournament, beating tough teams such as Duxbury and Bishop Feehan, and culminated their run with a win over long time rival Sharon in the championship. They made it to the semi-finals of state tournament before losing to eventual state champ Concord-Carlisle. The team was led by captain Will Shaw, who was an all-star along with Nils Radojewski, Greg Kelley, Kyle Isola, Adam Selby and Alex Gordon. With five starters returning, the team hopes to repeat as league champs.

Led by captains Kirsten Hansen and Kate Nyquist, the girls' tennis team went to the tournament for the first time in several years. They finished with a winning record and ended up in second place in the league, giving Cohasset a run for their money. The team was strong behind singles players Sara Bitetti, Kate Truesdell and Jen Gallagher, and doubles players Kate Nyquist, Erika Schmidt, Kirsten Hansen and Ashley Dye. The team should see continued success in the future with five of seven starters returning.

Softball

The 1999 softball season may not have been too successful, however the girls had a lot of fun. Guided by the expertise of Coach Gerety, the young team, which had no seniors, was led by juniors Andre Donovan and Amy Guiney. Jesse Weber was an asset to their defensive game, as was freshman superstar pitcher Kristin Kilduff. The team hopes to strengthen the record with the return of all the previous players.

Baseball

The baseball team, led by seniors Sean Casey, Brian Naymie, and George Gainer, made its way to the playoffs last year and had a successful season highlighted by a 2-1 victory over Hanover. This year, the team returns many starters, which include all-stars Dana Mohr, Adam Jacobs, and Mike Savoy. The Clippers ought to fare well with younger talent.

Girls' Lacrosse

The spring of '99 introduced a new sport to NHS: girls' lacrosse. Under the guidance of coach Jen Kent, the team finished with a near undefeated record of 6-1-1. The team was led by junior captains Jen Vaughn and Katie Matarazzo. The attack was dominated by Liz Ghilardi, Grier Colella, Ali Selby, Ashley Alabiso, and Alison Duffney, while the defense was anchored by Jen Vaughn, Katie Matarazzo, Lindsay Jevne, Emily Richardson, and goalie Meghan Dwyer. Made up by a large number of underclassmen and having improved through the season, the team looks to have a promising future.

Boys' Lacrosse

After a rough start, the lacrosse team rebounded back and just missed qualifying for the state tournament, with the senior leadership of captains Ethan Ceplikas, Brian Fabrizio, Brian Savarese, and Tom Slavin. The team also looks to build on its success next year. Many underclassmen played a critical role on the team and with the aid of junior varsity coach Steve Kapolka, Coach Jay Williams is looking for the team to continue its improvement in the upcoming season.

They won their second straight South Shore League title and qualified for the Eastern Massachusetts Tournament at the Easton Country Club, where they finished fifth, one point shy of a trip to the state championship. Nonetheless, Ben Spitz qualified and won the state tournament, becoming Norwell's first state champion ever. Other golfers who performed well were Bob Mahoney, Tim Hajjar, Chris Camerota, and Jarret Bennett.

National Honor Society

Members of the National Honor Society are sworn to uphold standards of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. On induction night, new members were officially sworn in after inspiring speeches from Scott Babcock, former School Committee Chairman, and the president of Norwell's National Honor Society Chapter, Sean Meyer.

Underclass Awards

Parents, students, and faculty alike were brought together once again for an afternoon of excitement. Students were honored for their success in academia here at NHS. They received awards for both academic achievement and dedication. In addition, the top five members of the junior class recieved book awards from distinguished organizations.

Anything Goes

In May, 1999, the outstanding cast, crew, and pit band of the Norwell High School Drama club got together to create an exciting and hugely successful production of Cole Porter's Anything Goes. The dancing, singing, and costumes were great, and everyone involved had a fantastic time.

Rock the Quad III

The third ever Rock the Quad was yet another great afternoon, filled with food, games, and a variety of music. The first ever NHS Dating Game was a smashing hit as Maura Gomez won a date with Kyle Isola, and Tim Hajjar won a date with Stacey Lindsay. Hosts Sam Mangum and Andrea Donovan kept the cool spring day sizzling. Students especially enjoyed the inflatable games and Vinal School maintained its Tug of War title for the third year in a row.

Boys' Soccer

This year's boys' soccer team shocked a lot of people with their brilliant run at the beginning of the season, which ended up resulting in their fourth consecutive league title and a tournament berth. Under the leadership of captain Andrea Donovan, the girls made it to the second round of the MIAA State Tournament. South Shore League All-Stars included Margaret Shute, Jesse Weber, and Emily Barbour. With only six seniors leaving, the team looks for continued success in the future.

Under the leadership of senior captain Geoff Atkinson and Adam Selby, the team placed third in the South Shore Principals Meet and seventh in the Eastern Mass Division Four state meet, just short of the state meet. The team had four all-stars, including Geoff Atkinson, Adam Selby, Ben Rosen and Jeff Collins.

Girls' Cross Country

The girls' cross country team had a sensational season this year. They stormed through SSL competition and won the league. All together there were six all-stars, including captain Lydia Halloran, Kayla Halloran, Alicia Hawthorne, Suzanne Chase, Bailey Weiden, and Sara Bitetti. With the graduation of only one senior, next year's team will look to win the state title.

Football

With the passing of one of the greatest football classes ever, no one knew exactly what this year's team could do. A third straight Super Bowl trip would eventually result, as the Clippers once again prevailed as the SSL champs. Under the direction of senior captains Jim Lewis, Dan McNamara, Tim Hajjar, and Dana Mohr, the football team finished the regular season with a record of 8-2-1, highlighted by a thrilling one point victory over Carver, that would eventually lead to another undefeated league season.

Their spirit and enthusiasm guided the Clippers to their third straight Super Bowl berth. While they did not place at the South Shore Cheerleading Competition, their dance routines stunned the crowd at both home and away games.

Field Hockey

Through hard work the NHS girls' field hockey team improved over last year's record. The team was led by tri-captains Amy Guiney, Kristina Tedeschi, and Colleen Mullen. The season got off to an awesome start with a number of ties and an exciting non-league win over Scituate. The leading scorers for Norwell were sophomore Michaela Clemence and senior Lindsay Gosnell. Senior Kristina Tedeschi was named a South Shore League All Star. Despite eleven seniors graduating, the team looks hopeful in the future with underclass standouts Laura Brennan, Lauren Gray, Michaela Clemence, and Sarah Taylor.

Final Score:
21-0

"What do you get when you cross a Hanover football player and a groundhog? Six more weeks of bad football." This year's exciting pep rally, hosted by Superfan Sam Mangum, helped the team get pumped for their victory over Hanover. The class of 2000 claimed their second Powder Puff victory in a close game. The final score was 6-0. The boys of C2K provided a thrilling half-time show. Once again Norwell claimed victory (21-0) in the rivalry against Hanover.

Antigone

This year's production of the Greek tragedy Antigone was a smashing hit. With Hannah Harvester as the title character, and Sam Mangum as her tyrannical uncle, Creon, the audience was dazzled with the moving rendition of this difficult piece. The modern adaptation of this ancient classic was directed by new faculty member Mr. Carrasquillo and Senior Jeremy Hill.

Boys' Winter Track

Drudging through the snow and running in the cold weather of the winter season, this year's boys' winter track team struggled to a 1-6 mark in league competition due to a lack of numbers. However, on an individual basis the team performed well. Senior captain Adam Selby performed well in the 1000m, senior Mike Savoy in the 55m dash, junior Jeff Collins in the mile, and sophomore Jason Galvin in the shot put. Coach Chuck Martin and Alicia Thibeau hope that next year's team will increase in the number of participants.

Girls' Winter Track

This year's girls' winter track team was a force to be reckoned with. They came up just short of a Patriot league title and ended up finishing in third place with a record of 6-2. Sophomore sensation Kayla Halloran set a school record with a 5:15 minute mile and was the backbone of the team throughout the season. Allison Zarick performed well in the 55m dash and the 600m, and Margaret Shute at the 55m hurdle and the 600m. With the graduation of only one senior, Erin Calvin, next year's team should be near the top of the league and also one of the premier teams in Class D.

Behind the play of senior captain Dan McNamara, the boys' basketball team fought through an undefeated regular season, and earned themselves another league title. With big wins over Hanover in the regular season they looked to go deep into the tournament. Other major contributors to the team were senior all-star center Matt Manning, senior guard A.J. Morrill, senior forward Jim Lewis, and freshman all-star forward Gerry Corcoran. This year's team was nothing less than fantastic, blending a solid offensive attack with speed and quickness on the defensive end.

Girls' Basketball

This year's girls' varsity basketball team was young and small, yet played a surprisingly successful season despite the odds. Led by senior captains Colleen Mullen and Colleen Kilcoyne, the team played and practiced hard to achieve remarkable results. The junior duo of Jesse Weber and Maeve Barao, and freshman point guard Sarah Cox led the Lady Clippers to thrilling victories over teams in higher divisions. Jesse Weber scored her 1000th point this season and Maeve Barao follows close behind. Other great contributors were senior Mary Costa and junior Lauren Doyle. With the strong support from freshmen Christine Frazier and Shauna Eyster the team looks promising for next year's season.

Gymnastics

This year, once again, the Norwell gymnastics team combined with Cohasset. The team was led by captain Patricia LaCroix and coaches Ruthann Androznie and Kara Connerty. The team record was 8-4, the team placing second in the league. The team had a very successful season, including victories over such competitive teams as Scituate, Hanover, and Hingham.

This year's hockey team was by far the best in the team's short history. The team stormed through league competition and ended up placing second behind annual power-house Hanover, but not after giving the Indians a run for their money in their two contests together. The team was led by the play of senior captains Joe McDonough and Matt Petty, who were among the top ten in the state in scoring all year long.

The NHS wrestling team had a very successful season, finishing with an overall record of 9-6, and were 4-1 in the South Shore League. Behind senior captains Mike Dye, Mike Robertson, Adam Jacobs, Steve Mott, and Ron Anderson, the team placed first at the Scituate Tournament and were runners-up at the Cohasset tournament.

Outstanding wrestlers include Dan Lipschutz at 130, Grant Spradlin

(ranked fourth in the state) at 135, Mike Robertson undefeated at 140, Mike Dye at 152, Ron Anderson at 160, and Steve Mott at 189. Despite the loss of ten seniors, a number of talented underclassmen should keep up the same momentum in the future.

For part of their trip they stayed with French correspondents who visited the Norwell High School students in April.
